

Community Focus Statement F: Improve communication within the community, and between community members and government agencies

F

Action Statement F.1: Improve communication between the County and community members (including the Homestead Valley Community Council) through regular public meetings and other events.*

Benchmark: Meet regularly and communicate with the County of San Bernardino and local cities to discuss relevant land use issues. Convey information to the appropriate Homestead Valley community groups.

Champion: Volunteer group or person or can be identified by the community

Estimated Cost: $500 - $2,500

Action	Action Leader	Timeline	Resources
1. Consider whether this action could be done by the existing Lucerne Valley & Johnson Valley Municipal Advisory Council.	Champion	Month 1	San Bernardino County Land Use Services http://cms.sbcounty.gov/lus/Planning/ApplicationsAccepted.aspx
2. If needed, create a task force to serve as a liaison between Homestead Valley, the County, and applicable local organizations.	Champion	Month 1	San Bernardino County Board of Supervisors http://www.sbcounty.gov/main/pages/bos.aspx
3. Select a leader to serve as chair of the task force.	Homestead Valley Coordination Task Force	Month 2	Homestead Valley Community Council http://www.hvccsite.org/
4. Schedule meetings with the County (including Supervisors, Land Use Services, Economic Development Agency, Sheriff Department and Fire Department) and adjacent municipalities to discuss development proposals, transportation, and infrastructure issues.	Homestead Valley Coordination Task Force	Quarterly	Lucerne Valley and Johnson Valley Municipal Advisory Council http://www.sbcounty.gov/bosd3/meetings/LucerneJohnsonValley
5. Communicate information to the appropriate Homestead Valley community groups.	Homestead Valley Coordination Task Force	Quarterly

*The distance between Homestead Valley communications and main County Departments in San Bernardino makes this difficult. Alternatives to in person meetings should be considered.